

How you can support your child
at home:

1

Encourage them to read – anything and everything!

2

Look at Google Classroom regularly; the expectation is that all students complete home-learning

3

Make sure your child has the right equipment with them everyday (pen, pencil and ruler)

Art:

Aboriginal Art: students will investigate and respond to the art, craft and design of aboriginal art

Computer Science:

Students will study computing systems and data representation

Drama:

Berthold Brecht: Students will learn about the German theatre maker's techniques and how he used theatre to encourage political change

English:

Students will study 'Djinn Patrol on the Purple Line', a coming of age novel set in the slums of an Indian city. They will also focus on building rhetorical writing skills in speeches

French:

Town: students will learn about what is in their town, what they can do in their town, opinions about their town. They will continue to revisit year 7 skills and will know the meaning and use of 'il y a' and 'c'est' in the present and imperfect

Geography:

Extreme environments: students will look at contrasting extreme environments including tundra, taiga, coniferous forest ecosystems with a focus on Russia

History:

What can we learn from the kingdoms of Benin and Asante about medieval African histories?: students will identify themes such as power, trade and kingship and look at how monarchs across history have tried to expand empires

Maths:

Proportional Reasoning: students will learn about: ratio and scale, multiplicative change and multiplying and dividing fractions

Music:

Dance music: students will learn how to create a piece of music that incorporates features of modern dance music, using music technology

Personal Development:

Students will learn about self identity, family and identity, stereotypes and personal beliefs

PE:

Students will complete a range of activities in games and PE such as rugby, football, netball, trampolining, fitness and badminton

RE:

Are Buddhists right to say that we need to change to become more compassionate people?: students will study the life of Buddha and the role truth played on his journey to enlightenment

Science:

Students will study: Forces: contact forces and pressure Matter: periodic table and elements Organisms: breathing and digestion

Technology:

Students will rotate through 3 subject areas: Food: students will continue to develop their practical skills while learning about cultural eating, Graphics: students will create a book sleeve and Wood: students will create a working automata